

For new courses or those revised substantially:

- 1) Intellectual rationale for the course

- 2) a. Place in the College's general curriculum

b. Place in department/program major

- 3) Are there similar or substantially overlapping courses already offered in Claremont?
If so, describe need for proposed course and relationship to other CC offerings?

- 4) Existing courses which will alternate with or be replaced by new course?

- 5) Do you think this course should fulfill one or more of the following general requirements:
[] Gender/Women's Studies [] Race and Ethnic Studies
[] Breadth requirement in _____
 - If you wish to have this course considered to fulfill the Race and Ethnic Studies requirement, please include a statement as to how it "assesses the systematic discrimination and exploitation of African Americans, Latino Americans, Native Americans, Asian Americans, and Arab Americans that have figured so critically in the history of this country." Please include a syllabus with this request.

- 6) Attach (partial) bibliography, syllabus, and any other information you think will be useful in consideration of this course proposal

- 7) The library has adequate resources to support this new course/program: Yes ___ No___
If no, then:
I have spoken with _____ of the library staff who has assessed the holdings in the library on this topic, and who will be making additional purchases to provide adequate materials for this course.

Cross-Listings: Indicate other departments or interdisciplinary programs under which this course should be listed:

Cross-listed Department Chair' Approval

- 8) Course credit: 1.0 course .5 course Grading: letter pass/fail
Related activities: required lab other _____
Special course fee (e.g., Studio Art courses): _____
Prerequisite course(s): _____
Corequisite courses: _____
Repeatable for credit (e.g., music performance courses): Yes ___ No ___

Department Chair's signature indicating approval

Core Director's signature (for Core courses only)

Race and Ethnic Studies Subcommittee signature
(for R & ES courses only)

Gender and Women's Studies - APS approval