June 15 - Russell Sage Foundation

The Russell Sage Foundation is now accepting Letters of Inquiry for its Future of Work program. Future of Work supports research on the causes and consequences of changes in the quality of jobs for less- and moderately-skilled workers in the United States. The foundation seeks research proposals related to the role of changes in labor practices; the nature of the labor market; and public policies on the employment, earnings, and the quality of jobs of American workers. Awards available for research assistance, data acquisition, data analysis, and investigator time for conducting research and writing up results. Grants of up to $150,000 will be awarded to qualified organizations.

Proposal Writing Institute, Aug 4-8, 2016

Kellogg West Conference Center & Hotel, Pomona

This Institute will bring together faculty and administrators interested in preparing proposals for submission to external funding agencies and consists of one-on-one work with a mentor, writing, small group discussions, and critiquing of proposals. The Institute has been developed to assist novice to experienced proposal writers in drafting complete proposals for submission. Participants who come well prepared and who work hard should be able to leave the Institute with a completed (or nearly completed) proposal to the granting agency of their choice.

Application: Due by Friday July 17! Applications reviewed on a rolling basis; institute may reach capacity prior to application deadline.

Please notify Gretchen Edwalds-Gilbert of your intent to apply for the CUR Proposal Writing Institute. Funding for registration is available

Sept 18 - Guggenheim Memorial Foundation

Intended for individuals who have already demonstrated exceptional capacity for productive scholarship or exceptional creative ability in the arts (excluding performing arts). The program seeks to further the development of scholars and artists by helping them engage in research in any field of knowledge or artistic creation in any of the arts, under the freest possible conditions.

Fellowships provide grants to selected individuals over a period ranging between 6-12 months. Support is only available to individuals. Fellowships are not available for the creation of residencies, curriculum development, or any type of educational program, nor are they available to support the development of websites or blogs. Grant amounts vary.

Sept 29 - National Endowment for the Humanities

Summer Stipends support individuals pursuing advanced research that is of value to humanities scholars, general audiences, or both.

Recipients usually produce articles, monographs, books, digital materials, archaeological site reports, translations, editions, or other scholarly resources.

Summer Stipends support continuous full-time work on a humanities project for a period of two consecutive months. Summer Stipends support projects at any stage of development. For projects beginning May 2017.

Sept 2016 - ACLS

A partnership between the American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS) and the Mellon Foundation, Burkhardt Fellowships for Recently Tenured Faculty of Liberal Arts Colleges are intended to support an academic year (nine months) of residence at a university academic department or university-based humanities center of their choice. Each fellowship carries a stipend of $75,000, plus funds for research costs and related scholarly activities of up to $5,000 and for relocation up to $2,000. Eligible for recently tenured humanists—scholars who will have begun their first tenured contracts by the application deadline but began their first tenured contracts no earlier than the fall 2012 semester or quarter.
