Recently Awarded:

Mary MacNaughton, Associate Professor of Art History and Director of the Ruth Chandler Williamson Gallery

$10,000 from the Carpenter Foundation to support the conservation of a Chinese painting attributed to Tang Di (1287-1355)

***

Michael Spezio, Associate Professor of Psychology

$189,926 from the Templeton Foundation in support of "Humility in loving encounter: Ontological and cognitive-motivational models of the moral self in stable communities of care, forgiveness, and reconciliation."

***

Share your successes! If you have recently received an award, please contact Foundation & Corporate Relations so that we can feature your success in an upcoming newsletter.

Upcoming Requests for Proposals:

Oct 1 - Getty Scholars Program

The Getty Institute is inviting scholars in the arts, humanities, and social sciences to apply for 3-9 month residencies (which include receive salary support, access to the collections, an office space and housing at the Getty Research Institute or Getty Villa).

Getty Scholars may be in residence for one of six periods ranging from three to nine months: September to December; January to March; April to June; September to March; January to June; or September to June. A stipend of up to $65,000 per year will be awarded based on length of stay, need, and salary. The grant also includes an office at the Getty Research Institute or the Getty Villa, research assistance, an apartment in the Getty scholar housing complex, airfare to and from Los Angeles, and makes healthcare options available. These terms apply as of July 2015 and are subject to future changes.

Oct 15 - Borchard Foundation Center on Law & Aging

The Borchard Foundation Center on Law & Aging awards up to 4 grants of $20,000 each year through the Academic Research Grant Program to further scholarship about new or improved public policies, laws and/or programs that will enhance the quality of life for the elderly. Each grant recipient is required to publish an article on the subject of their research in a top flight journal.

Oct 15 - The Radcliffe Institute Fellowship Program

One-year fellowship grants of up to $75,000 will be awarded to individuals working in the creative arts, humanities, social sciences, natural sciences, or mathematics to pursue projects within their respective field.
For questions or assistance at any stage of the grant-seeking process, contact the office of Foundation and Corporate Relations.

Kristen McInnis
Executive Director
Institutional Advancement
x71544

Marissa Butler
Assistant Director
Foundation & Corporate Relations
x76245

***

Working on an LOI or a Grant Proposal? Please see our Proposal or LOI Checklist for helpful hints and answers to some FAQs.

***

Ready to apply for an opportunity? Don't forget to complete your Proposal or LOI Processing Form and return to Foundation & Corporate Relations at least 2 weeks prior to the deadline.

Oct 30 - Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation

Career Enhancement Fellowships for Junior Faculty aims to increase the presence of minority Junior Faculty (African Americans, Hispanics, Native Americans and Native Alaskans), and other junior faculty members committed to eradicating racial disparities, and breaking down stereotypes and promoting cross-racial understanding in core fields in the arts and sciences. Applicants should 1) be in the third year of the tenure-track teaching appointment at the time of application, 2) teach in one of the eligible academic fields, and 3) be able to accept the award for the 2016-2017 academic year. The award includes a maximum $30,000 stipend, a $1,500 research, travel or publication grant, and funding to attend the Annual Retreat.

Nov 2 - The Asian Cultural Council

The Asian Cultural Council is inviting proposals from individuals “exhibiting an abiding passion” and interest in cultural exchange between the United States and the countries of Asia, as well as among the countries in Asia. To apply, you must be an artist, an arts or humanities professional, a scholar, or a graduate/post-graduate student in a related field. Your country of permanent residence must be within Asia or the United States, and your proposed project must take place outside of your home country, also in either the United States or Asia. Acceptable disciplines include: Archaeology, Architecture, Art History, Arts Administration, Arts Criticism, Conservation, Crafts, Curation, Dance, Film/Video, Literature, Museum Studies, Music, Photography, Theater, and Visual Art.
Dec 9 - National Endowment for the Humanities' Scholarly Editions and Translations Grant

Scholarly Editions and Translations grants support the preparation of editions and translations of pre-existing texts and documents of value to the humanities that are currently inaccessible or available in inadequate editions. Typically, the texts and documents are significant literary, philosophical, and historical materials; but other types of work, such as musical notation, are also eligible.

Projects must be undertaken by a team of at least one editor or translator and one other staff member. These grants support full-time or part-time activities for periods of one to three years.

Dec 10 - Haynes Foundation

Up to eight (8) Faculty Fellowships of $12,000 each are awarded annually to faculty members in the social sciences at any university or four-year college in the five county Southern California region (Los Angeles, Orange, Ventura, San Bernardino and Riverside). Funds are restricted to:

- Original social science research into policy issues of the Los Angeles region,
- Research into the history of Southern California,
- Archival and cataloging projects important to Los Angeles,
- Dissertation fellowships at research universities in the five-county Southern California region.
- Faculty fellowships at universities and four-year colleges in the five-county Southern California region.

Jan 28 - Simons Foundation

This program provides five-year grants to support travel and visitors for mathematicians in the U.S. who do not have access to substantial research funding. Each collaboration grant provides $7,000 per year for five years: $5,000 per year for collaboration, travel, and research expenses for the awardee; $1,000 per year in discretionary funds for the awardee’s department; and $1,000 per year in indirect costs to the awardee’s institution. The five-year grant will commence September 1, 2016, and end August 31, 2021.

***